WHEREAS, We have many people in our state and nation who are unable to leave their homes, nursing homes and hospitals because of infirmities; and,

WHEREAS, Many of these citizens carried on civic activities in spite of their infirmities; and,

WHEREAS, It is well for all citizens to be aware that we do have people who are unable to be active in community affairs; and,

WHEREAS, We, the citizens of South Dakota, recognize our friends and neighbors who are shut-in:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, June 1, 1975, as in South Dakota, and encourage all citizens of South Dakota to visit or send a note of remembrance to persons unable to leave their homes or hospital beds and thus let them know they have not been forgotten by their fellowmen.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 12th day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five

Richard F. Kneip

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR
